St. Patrick's Day

On March 17, elementary students wear green to school to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Patrick is Ireland's patron saint and they honor him on this day. The first official celebration of St. Patrick's Day in the United States occurred in Morristown, New Jersey in 1780 which was authorized by George Washington. Today St. Patrick's Day is celebrated by the Irish as well as many Americans with parades, parties, wearing of green, Irish songs, and jigs. People wear green on this day to represent the lushness of Ireland - The Emerald Isle.
